

Failed developers continue to stall

Attempt to return $27.5M to Chinese investors drags on

BY PETER VON BUOL

Two developers who failed in their 2017 attempt to build a 60-story high-rise on Chicago's Near North Side and who have yet to return $27 million lent to them by a group of Chinese investors filed a motion on Feb. 17 which requested a federal judge give them more time to produce financing documents which the defendants admit do not even exist.

In a Feb. 17 motion submitted to federal judge Charles P. Kocoras, the attorney representing defendants Jeffrey Laytin and Jason Ding asked the judge to clarify what was meant by providing "documentation related to any financing of the consent judgement." The pair had been unable to follow an agreed-upon repayment schedule and during the court hearing claimed a loan they had expected had not yet materialized. Shortly afterwards, Kocoras ordered the defendants to provide documentation about this pending loan.

"In reviewing the proposed order tendered on Feb. 9, [my] defendants glossed over language in paragraph four [of the court order], which states that defendants shall provide 'documentation related to any financing of the consent judgement.' Defendants should have required that this clause be removed, because the Court never ordered defendants to produce such documents, or even provide them for inspection. Defendants do not have any documents related to the financing of the consent judgement," wrote Daniel Hildebrand, who represents Laytin and Ding, in his motion.

While Hildebrand said his clients cannot provide any documentation for this future loan, he added his clients will be using this undocumented loan to pay the balance of their settlement to their Chinese-based investors.

"Defendants do not have any documents related to financing the 'consent judgement.' The bridge loan, if completed, will be used to pay the balance of the settlement agreement judgement for $1.64 million-not the consent judgement. Defendants do not at present have any signed loan agreement related to either a bridge loan, which would be used to pay the settlement agreement judgement, or to a construction loan, which would be used to finance the larger consent judgement," wrote Hildebrand.

The supposedly pending loan to Laytin and Ding will not be for the failed Superior St. project but will be to "develop a wholly different project in Hawaii." Laytin and Ding once owned a property

Bally's temp casino passes muster in Statehouse

Last week the Illinois Gaming Board unanimously approved initial supplier licenses for Bally's temporary casino at Medinah Temple, 600 N. Wabash.

It was the last hurdle to leap, and now Bally's will be able to operate a temporary casino in River North while the full-fledged casino is being constructed at Halsted St. and Chicago Ave., the site of the soon-to-be former Tribune Freedom Center printing plant.

According to media reports, the landmark temple, controlled by Friedman Properties, would control and lease Medinah Temple to Bally's who will open and operate Chicago's first land-based casino there.

The Illinois Gaming Board will need to sign off on more supplier licenses before the temporary casino could open. Once those licenses are approved, Bally's hopes to begin construction and is targeting a Summer 2023 opening.

Kamin is keynote speaker for CLA annual meeting

Bright signs for continued recovery downtown

Some 300 key Chicago Loop stakeholders will gather for breakfast on March 2 to connect during the Chicago Loop Alliance's [CLA] annual meeting.

That meeting will take place starting at 9 a.m. Thursday, March 2 at Convene Willis Tower, 233 S. Wacker Dr.

This year's meeting keynote speaker will be Blair Kamin, author, Pulitzer Prize winner, and former Chicago Tribune architecture critic.

Based on his most recent book, "Who Is the City For?," Kamin argues that although things might look bleak for downtown in the wake of the pandemic, Chicago's tradition of bold planning and a fresh emphasis on equity will spark revival.

Annual Meeting attendees will also leave with a copy of Kamin's new book, featuring photography by Chicago Sun-Times architecture critic Lee Bey.

The CLA's annual meeting gathers some of the Loop's most influential business, civic, and cultural leaders to connect during a crucial time of economic recovery. Chicago Loop Alliance will offer a recap of 2022; share plans for 2023; and induct the incoming slate of Board of Directors.

According to the CLA's 4th quarter 2022 survey, notable recovery activity in the Loop during October through December included:

- Arts and culture brought over 1,000,000 visitors to the Loop
- Theatre and performing arts drew over 700,000 visitors to the Loop and over $200,000,000 in direct economic impact
- Public transit reached a pandemic level recovery rate high of 73% of 2019 levels
- Major investment announcements in the downtown economy included Saks OFF 5th reopening, Vivid Seats headquarters arriving, and a Toys "R" Us opening inside Macy's on State St.
- Abundant holiday programming and shopping helped influence strong pedestrian activity in the Loop and the active retail corridor along State St., reaching 85% of 2019 levels
- Hotel occupancy reached 85% of 2019 levels
- Parking rates continued to exceed pre-pandemic levels despite a slight dip, likely due to growth in public transportation ridership

"The changing season and excitement of the holidays brought palpable vibrancy to the Loop this year," said Michael Edwards, CEO of CLA. He says the area experiences a shift from viewing progress compared to pre-pandemic toward "more intentionally projecting the current state of the Loop and its future."

He says as a primary driver of activity in the Loop, theaters have reported packed houses and excited crowds at shows throughout quarter four of 2022, despite an intense winter storm during the holiday season which caused a dip in show attendance.

He reports that significant crowds visited the Art Institute of Chicago for their special exhibition shows including the "David Hockney" exhibit which drew over 128,000 visitors from the end of August through the start of the new year. And that their "Language of Beauty" in African Art exhibit drew over 33,000 visitors during the holiday season.

The Chicago Transit Authority [CTA] reported the highest ridership spike since the beginning of the pandemic. The CLA believes a spike in ridership coupled with the highest number of days with over 900,000 passengers since the beginning of the pandemic signals the importance of public transportation in the wider eco-

Moody Triangle plan puts potential landmarks at risk

In 2022 Preservation Chicago named The Moody Triangle site in Old Town as one of The Chicago 7 Most Endangered sites. After the release of plans brought forward by developer Fern Hill, it looks like they were right.

The triangle itself is formed by North Ave. and the convergence of Clark St. and LaSalle Dr. to the north. This is a highly-visible parcel fronting Old Town, the Gold Coast, Lincoln Park and the Chicago History Museum. It is a gateway to several communities in many ways. And Preservation Chicago was prescient when it identified the parcel specifically as being endangered.

Two properties in particular right now seem to have targets on them, the former North Federal Savings Bank (now Wintrust Bank), 100 W. North Ave.; and the Archway Standard Station/BP Service Station, 1647 N. LaSalle St. In the design released earlier this month by Fern Hill, both properties were portrayed as being gone.

The North Federal Savings Bank, later Diamond Bank and now Wintrust Bank, was designed by the firm of Naess & Murphy in 1961. This Midcentury Modern structure was not included in the Chicago Historic Resources Survey (CHRS), as the building was too new and under 50 years of age when the area was surveyed. However, the building was so well-regarded by experts in the field and the City of Chicago that the City's Historic Preservation Division of the Dept. of Planning & Development had sought the building for possible Chicago Landmark designation in 2007.

This bank was considered a representation of a Modernist community bank by a significant firm, executed in the International Style, influenced by the work of Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, and

Sidewalks will be closed during Rush St. demolition Demolition of 1043 N. Rush St. will begin on Monday, March 6. Work hours will be Monday-Friday, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Throughout the demolition process, the sidewalk in front of 1043 N. Rush St. will be closed to pedestrian traffic. Pedestrians will be redirected at Bellevue/Rush and Cedar/Rush.

The demolition process is expected to last three weeks. After demolition is complete, the construction of a new two-story building will begin.

Try some charm, we all know how dense men can be

By Thomas J. O’Gorman

Bleak numbers appear to signal that Mayor Calamity Jane Lightfoot is in big trouble in the upcoming election.

Three out of every five voters do not approve of the way in which she has handled Chicago’s problems. Dropping in the polls, you can hear the sidewalks scream she is headed for certain defeat.

Voters are speaking up and talking about their choice of rescuer. Paul Vallas is skyrocketing.

People are aware of the consequences. And are coming out for him.

And so in the countdown to the Feb. 28 election the mayor stews. Broods. Sulks. As all good progressives must when they realize their political ideology is off the track.

It’s not just that Calamity Jane is all woke-up. She isn’t a good decision maker. She lacks training. She never attended a political prep school. She just doesn’t know any better. It’s all philosophical to her. Especially when she’s whacking aldermen doing their jobs in the Chicago City Council.

But there’s light in the tunnel ahead.

I knew if we were patient, and waited long enough, Lightfoot would shoot herself in the foot (or higher up) during the “Mayoral Debates.”

And she did it well. As easy as tripping on her pant cuffs.

In perfect political clichés. All trite, banal and over-used in progressive parlance.

Recently, she flipped out during the mayoral forum of candidates, accusing her male mayoral opponents of “mansplaining.”

You know, when vocabulary or ideas are over-simplified for women to understand. It’s a quick and easy barrage of attack when ideological people want to terrorize their opponents. But what was she thinking?

That crowd of candidates is hardly stacked with lofty, out of touch, political intellectuals, the kind famous for using the old “mansplaining” technique as a way of belittling their female opponents.

But I’m not really sure how much explanation actually constitutes “mansplaining.” It’s got to be more than a simple interjection. Is the purpose of debate not to get your version of how you see things out there? It didn’t seem like the intention of any of her opponents was to belittle her political gender by an over-explanation.

There’s a time and place for true critiques of excess “man talk.” Her resorting to play that gender card seemed disingenuous. But it did show a little fire in the belly. I’d be jumping all over my opponents’ podiums if I was a participant.

Her comment did get to raise the feminist question of how these men deal with women. But without providing any proper channel to answer the challenge she raised. Saying what she said was just a distraction. Pure public devilment to shadow her opponents intentions.

I suspect her opponents share her abhorrence for “mansplaining.” You’d have to have a screw loose to do it in a political candidates forum. But she took it as a chance to scold her opponents. Embarrass them.

Sadly, I don’t think she did herself any favors.

The same can be said for her second outburst, saying she was getting treated like a child by them. Perhaps she only has herself to blame if she has to lash out at her opponents as such. Not for issues facing the city and her poor attempts to deal with them, but her perceptions as a person.

She’s angry.

Pollsters have probably already told her she’s going to crash and burn on Feb. 28. Taking it out on Brandon Johnson or Willie Wilson doesn’t seem honest.

Have her backers held their last dinner yet? Maybe in a private room of a noted steakhouse?

She had no patience for Johnson’s interjection which she labeled “mansplaining.” Or when Wilson called the mayor “confused.” That’s when she said, “Don’t try and treat me like I’m some child, trying to tell me to quiet down.” Her exact words.

So she tries to shape the content of what other people hear. Whether it’s there or not. Surely they hear what she heard?

Surely, if true, the liberal crowd of feminist voters would be enraged by her pointing out how backward these men are. How neolithic their view of women’s brains are.

Boy is she kidding herself.

Calamity Jane should not be allowed to be so disingenuous. That ought to tell us all something. Gives us a taste of what she’s really like when cornered. When she needs to think on her feet. Play the gender card. Play the feminist card. Or the race card. Or the victim card.

That’s hard to swallow if your loved one has been murdered. Or if you’ve been shot, stabbed, looted, carjacked, poorly educated in our Chicago schools, or seen your favorite store, business or boutique close their doors.

I’m not sure how effective these Mayoral Forums are. Especially since the votes are already coming into the Board of Elections. Like many, I’ve already voted.

The forums do give us the chance to see the candidates in full bloom, beyond their canned political visions should they be elected.

But watching the candidates in action can actually be way more informative than their hobbled politics. What we get is the chance to see them in action, engaging one another. We get their measure as human beings. When their lingo is unencumbered.

When their reason is unleashed, or their tempers. Or their pique. What riles them up? What raises their blood pressure? Can they speak? Are they easy talkers? Are they open souls?

Or are they cautiously controlled, taking pot-shots at their opponents? Like Lightfoot is famous for. Are they in possession of any real ideas that could turn the disaster of Chicago around?

Calamity Jane went out of her way to take pot-shots at Paul Vallas. Even she knows he is the front runner whom people see as intelligent and reasonable. She chopped away at his public record. And distorted his great re-creation of Chicago’s public schools years ago.

Vote early

Feb. 28th

When our government locked down small businesses for COVID, while allowing large businesses like Amazon, Target and Walmart to remain open, they collapsed around one million small businesses across the nation. The government assisted the favored giants into record profits.

Our government made matters worse by using our tax dollars to pay big banks billions of dollars to administrate the SBA COVID Relief small business loans / grants. Like I've said before, our government already has all the sales tax records of every small business nationwide. They could have administrated this relief reparation based on those records.

Small businesses were sacrificed on the altar of "saving lives" while monopolies benefited. A Johns Hopkins study revealed COVID lockdowns had an extremely negligible effect on death rates from COVID, clocking in at 0.2% or 1/5 of 1%. Was the destruction worth it?

We are now entering a new phase of our government getting it all wrong. The new Puritans of Big Woke Inc. want to end personal cars for you and me. But not for them.

I want bike lanes too, but not at the expense of torpedoing small businesses' street parking and loading zones on Broadway! Nick Ward and his organizers from Better Streets Chicago state that taking away parking and loading zones from successful small businesses on Broadway is essential to their plan of getting rid of cars. How about taking away parking lots for Amazon Whole Foods, Target and Walmart?

Until then, they will be removing ZERO cars from the roads, but will force the demise of the GREENEST businesses on Broadway such as Green Element Resale, Broadway Antique Market, Sophie's Closet and many other small independent businesses.

Short-sighted moves by IDOT and CDOT will assist in bringing an end to most small businesses on Broadway. Many that are minority owned.

Believe them, and the World Economic Forum, when they tell you "You will own nothing and be happy about it."

Instead of taking away much needed parking, I propose a better solution would be to connect the lakefront bike path, thus addressing bicyclist requests for yet one more north-south connection to travel, other than Kenmore, Winthrop and Glenwood. This proposal to connect the bike path on the east side of Sheridan Rd. high-rises would also address the protection needed from lake levels by incorporating a service road behind the buildings from Ardmore to Granville with entrance/exits at Ardmore, Thorndale, Glenlake and Granville. This service road would be used by delivery, moving trucks, and residents to free up congestion on Sheridan Rd.

Vote for me, Brian Haag. Standing up for small businesses. Standing for sustainability.

No ideology, orthodoxy, or political party.

And the hate goes on...

Chicago Police Dept. issues "Day of Hate" alert

Heart of the 'Hood by Felicia Dechter

Over the weekend, the Chicago Police Department's 24th District's Place of Worship Safety Advisory Team [POWSAT] sent out a Community Alert due to "recently-observed, online domestic violent extremist messaging."

The POWSAT notice warned that Feb. 25 is being declared a national "Day of Hate."

Seems like every day is becoming a day of hate though, doesn't it?

The alert further states: "This anti-Semitic proposed event has instructed like-minded individuals to drop banners, place stickers and fliers, and vandalize by way of graffiti as forms of biased, so-called activism. The organizers are requesting that the potential actions be recorded and/or photographed to submit online."

POWSAT is urging 24th District neighbors to keep situationally-aware and pay attention to your surroundings while out in the neighborhood, not just on the Jewish Sabbath but during the week as well.

"We strongly encourage residents to help the police by calling 911 immediately and reporting all suspicious vehicles, persons, or circumstances," the alert said. "Since officers can't be on every street in the city at once, we count on our residents to be our additional eyes and ears." It then thanks people and tells them to "stay safe."

According to an article written by the Jewish United Fund, POWSAT was developed in 2019 in the wake of the Oct. 2018 Tree of Life Synagogue massacre in Pittsburgh. Eleven worshippers were killed and

Design Museum's Little Free Library seeks book donations

The Design Museum of Chicago is seeking books to give away as a part of their Little Free Library. The library is housed in an old bank vault.

Books can be left at 72 E. Randolph St., 7 days a week, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

If you have books about art, design, photography, or anything creative, the Little Free Library would love to find them a new meaningful home.

The museum was founded in 2012 as an entirely volunteer-run organization that planned and executed pop-up exhibitions. In 2014, after two years of successful itinerant programming, more than 500 backers supported a campaign to provide funding for the museum to operate year-round. Beginning with a single staff member, the museum now mounts at least two exhibitions per year, has hosted hundreds of public programs, and engaged with more than 175,000 visitors.

Anyone who visits the Design Museum can take a book or leave a book.

six others wounded. Since then, 24th District Officers Michael Specht and Roger Heath have visited each of the "scores" of synagogues in the district, both Orthodox and Reform, sharing tips and more on what to do in the event of an unusual occurrence that raises suspicion, or what to do if approached by a stranger spewing anti-Semitic insults.

To me, this hatred -- both online and on the streets -- is crazy scary. I asked Officer Specht if by chance there's more hateful chatter than usual due to this extremely-contentious election.

"We do not believe this has anything to do with elections," said Specht. "This is not the first time this type of verbiage has been released in the past year regarding anti-Semitism and such."

"We do not believe this has anything to do with elections," said 24th District Officer Michael Specht. "This is not the first time this type of verbiage has been released in the past year regarding anti-Semitism and such."

I really admire this much-needed task that POWSAT is performing in our community. Please support their efforts. One way to do so is to mark your calendars for an event that is actually being held by the 16th District Faith Based Committee. The 24th District POWSAT Sanctuary Safety Workshop will be 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., March 8, at the Edison Park Lutheran Church, 6626 N. Oliphant. Its purpose is to educate faith leaders and congregants to take action and become more "situationally-aware" of their surroundings at all times.

Power to the people... Everybody is suddenly an expert on the election, putting out snarky little voting guides, calling people meanie names. Gosh, some folks can just be so not nice.

What the heck, have we all forgotten the Golden Rule?

I've thought, well, I can do that too. So here are my non-snarky, no name calling, non-nasty, logical, reasonable and fair 21 questions for voting, from a non-political, non-expert but lifelong Chi-town girl who has dealt professionally with politicians for nearly three decades.

And just a reminder: Our newspaper coverage spans from the downtown area through the North Side of the city so this is a generic guide for the many wards that our papers are read in.

(For those of you facing challengers without incumbents, change the questions to "will your candidate...?")

1. After reading about the aforementioned Day of Hate: Has your candidate publicly denounced any and all acts of hatred?
2. Is your ward better or worse off than it was four years ago?
3. Is your candidate focused on the issues facing the ward?
4. Has there been growth in your ward?
5. Has your ward thrived or just survived these last four years?
6. Did your candidate vote to raise property taxes that hurt homeowners and trickle-down to renters?
7. Does your candidate hold community meetings in a timely manner, and are they in-person or are they still using the "C" word (COVID), as an excuse to Zoom?
8. Is your voice heard, does your candidate represent the entire community or just a select few?
9. Have you or anyone you know been harassed, intimidated, bullied, or a victim of coercion by your candidate or any of their supporters?
10. Is your candidate transparent?
11. How accessible is your candidate? Is their office open five days a week? Could you find them during the pandemic?
12. Is your candidate out and about in the community, problematic spots and all? (When prostitution was an issue around Washington Square Park during the reign of the late-Alderman Burt Natarus [42nd], he started walking the park and nearby streets in the wee hours of the morning, during 'business hours' and that put on the kibosh, pronto.)
13. Is your candidate easy to get in touch with and quickly responsive... do they answer the phone when it rings or do you get voice mail? Can you ask for and get a meeting with them regarding something worrisome?
14. Does your candidate have a good working relationship with the police?
15. Do they ever personally show up and take a seat at the table at any CAPS or open community / police meetings?
16. With whom does your candidate surround themselves, who works for them?

17. Does your candidate believe in tweaking projects until an acceptable compromise is reached? (The former Columbus Hosp. property in Lincoln Park comes to mind here. I attended both community and smaller meetings and after much neighborhood input and hard work, the Lucien Lagrange-designed buildings are gorgeous. But that plan was tweaked, and tweaked some more, until an acceptable negotiation was reached.)
18. How does your candidate feel about preservation of historic buildings? (This one gets me thinking about the late Gold Coaster Yvonne Pen, who was part of a feisty group that formed a human chain around the Medinah Temple/Tree Studios property and helped to successfully save it from the wrecking ball.)
19. What sort of positive changes has your ward seen under the current leadership in the last four years?
20. Does your candidate publicly address any nasty dialogue in your community?
21. Has your candidate kept their promises? (Please don't be fooled by ongoing, false promises.)

Whoever you decide is the best candidate for you, please vote on Feb. 28. Remember, the future of our "City of the Big Shoulders," is resting on yours.

Fake news alert... what online, social media-based neighborhood news group has lost credibility with its biased censorship of anyone not sharing its political views? Neighbors have been banned, blocked, and censored so what's left is a politically-shared voice that's definitely not the say-so of an entire community. One of the admins doesn't even live in Chicago, while another has their nose way up into the local politician's er, um, business, and is even a donor.

Family remembers 'gentle giant' murdered while trying to defuse knife attack in Edgewater

BY CWBCHICAGO

Aisha Barton is remembering her son, Jamel Henton, as "a 6'-10" gentle giant who was kind and respectful to everyone."

Henton was killed on Feb. 8 when he tried to calm a knife-wielding woman who had stabbed another man outside his apartment building in the 5200 block of N. Sheridan, Chicago police said. Isis Monae was charged with his murder on Feb. 12.

"The news outlets are calling him a Good Samaritan for saving two people he didn't know from being hurt or killed," Barton wrote in a GoFundMe campaign seeking contributions to offset funeral costs. "Unfortunately, in the process, he was stabbed to death."

"Many have deemed him a Hero, but to me, Jamel was my youngest child and my only son that was stolen from me and is now gone."

"Jamel was a 6'-10" gentle giant who was kind and respectful to everyone. Jamel worked at Potbelly Sandwich Shop on Clark St., and he was in the process of enrolling for classes at Oakton Community College," Barton wrote.

Speaking with ABC7 news, Barton said, "I told him every day, 'You are destined for greatness.' I had no idea that this would be his greatest act, protecting two other people that he didn't even know."

"He has a huge family that loves him. He has grandparents and uncles and aunts and cousins and friends, and she stole him from us. She stole him," Barton told ABC7. "He's more than a good Samaritan. He's a hero."

Letters to the Editor

Winners, losers to the municipal election

Even though you may not yet have even voted, the winners and losers have been declared.

Sacred cows will be fed. Others will be taxed and slaughtered. Guess which group you belong to?

Winner: The Chicago Teachers Union. They will elect more Marxists, er, uh, I mean Socialist Democrats to the City Council. And they will push their woke, gimme agenda and continue to "groom" children.

Loser: Homeowners. Your condo, home or apartment building will become an ATM for City Hall and all its spending sprees.

Winner: Greedy Developers. They will continue to seize city assets and TIF property tax funds to finance their crime. See Matt Martin and Lincoln Square.

Loser: School children. Chicago Public Schools continue to warehouse students and push out teens ill-equipped to compete in the world job market. City Hall is NOT pro-choice when it comes to our children's education.

Winner: Casinos. Bally's in, and Tribune printing plant out... lay the points and take the under.

Losers: Gamblers. Maybe you can feed and clothe the kids next week.

Winner: Drug Dealers. Whether you have a marijuana dispensary or are just slinging dope on the street, the Chicago Machine will get out of your way. No oversight, fewer cops, no jail time.

Loser: North Siders. Crime is increasing and it has found a home in River North, Old Town, Lincoln Park, Lakeview, North Center and Lincoln Square/Ravenswood. You have become an apple orchard. Easy pickings.

Winner: Mike Madigan. With all the woke, climate change nuts moving to ban gas stoves, Peoples Gas, gasoline cars, et. al., ComEd and its electricity will be the only game in town. And who has his people in at ComEd? Mike Madigan!

Loser: Taxpayers. City pension funds are hemorrhaging money. City Hall allows its friends to take pension funds to invest but very seldom do the funds get a healthy return back. So a city income tax. Real estate transfer tax surcharges. Cell phone taxes. Cable TV taxes. Gambling taxes. Dope taxes. Red light camera taxes. Gasoline taxes. Internet sales taxes. User fees on public transportation, and an ATM fee for every withdrawal going to City Hall.

Just pay. If you complain, they will come after you and try to punish or hurt you.

After all this, now the woke workers of the world unite.

Nothin' shakin' on shakedown street, used to be the heart of town

Thank you for your honest coverage of the Clark Street Crossroads [Feb. 8] plan to cripple Clark St.

If it weren't for your newspaper, I wouldn't even know this takeover was in the works, as the Clark Street Crossroads committee has done absolutely nothing to reach out to the residents of the area. Which I guess is by design.

The Crossroads plan appears to be a desperate attempt to hold onto the TIF money.

It's one thing to put money into the businesses in the area. And ensure that plans are extremely business-friendly.

But it's another thing all together to waste $7.3 million of the taxpayer's money on superficial nonsense that does nothing to improve the area for the businesses, consumers and residents.

Being a resident of the area for over 30 years, I have seen that Clark St. has always had its own "identity." It already has the elements that draw in shoppers, bar and restaurant-goers and independent businesses.

The Crossroads plans would surely drive away shoppers, and like State St., the shoppers will actually just drive somewhere else.

It will indeed turn out just like State St. It will become a desolate ghost town of a street.

I clearly remember when State St. was turned into a pedestrian mall and how it languished. No one had any desire to shop and dine there.

The city knew fairly quickly that it was a big failure. A sad and expensive mistake.

It's a shame that we have to witness the same mistakes being made by a new generation of politicians trying to justify their budgets and their jobs.

Cut the blood flow, kill the patient

Why are aldermen and "committees" trying to destroy streets such as Clark St.? [Feb. 8]

Recently a candidate running for the 48th Ward complained about Ridge and Broadway "cutting through his community."

Excuse me?

These streets have been here helping to shuttle everyone where they need to go for well over a century, functioning as the main arteries of a bustling city.

But now certain factions see main thoroughfares as a personal affront and want to get rid of them. And our cars too.

It appears that they want to cut the very blood flow of this city.

And we know what happens when the blood flow is cut off long enough, you kill the patient.

What exactly is the end game of these short-sighted plans?

Looks like they want us to go backwards and erase The Century of Progress.

Major crimes balloon 58% higher, up 104% in two years

BY CWBCHICAGO

If you look up on a clear day in Chicago, you may see them overhead. No, those aren't incoming Chinese spy balloons. They're the latest crime statistics from the Chicago Police Dept.

Car theft up 151% so far this year. Sexual assaults and robberies up 23% each. Theft up 33%. Of the seven major crime categories CPD tracks, only murder is down.

The police department's CompStat report, published Tuesday, shows major crime reports up a whopping 104% compared to this point in 2021; 67% compared to 2020; and 66% compared to 2019.

Last month, Lori Lightfoot released a campaign ad claiming that the incumbent mayor has a crime plan and that critics are nothing more than "haters." Yet, the city's numbers speak for themselves.

Everyone's pleased to see 16 fewer murders so far this year. But that's still 58% higher than right before the last mayoral election in 2019.

From Grant Park to Rogers Park and from Jefferson Park to Wicker Park, nearly all of the city's police districts are experiencing double-digit increases in major crime this year. One district is up a mind-blowing 114%.

The only district in those areas that's not up this year is the Central 1st District, which includes the Loop, South Loop, and Bronzeville. With 29 fewer crime reports this year, the district is down 8%. But it's still up 136% compared to 2021.

The worst performer? That's the 20th Lincoln District, which includes the north ends of Uptown and Lincoln Square, Edgewater, and Andersonville. Thanks to a stunning 311% increase in auto thefts, total crime reports in the district are up 114% compared to last year and 110% compared to 2019. Only robbery cases are down.

But that brings us to the possibility that some better news may be on the horizon.

Auto theft, driven by the "Kia boys" social media craze, is the category responsible for much of the city's overall major crime increase. Just under 100 cars per day are being stolen in Chicago this year, an astonishing number that is 283% higher than 2019—thousands and thousands of vehicles.

The surge in car thefts began last July as the "Kia boy" phenomenon arrived in town. Until summer gets here, the city will likely continue to see substantial year-over-year increases. Then, as they say on Wall Street, the "comps" will become more favorable.

Even better: Hyundai and Kia, the two automakers whose vehicles are easily stolen by "Kia boys," just announced that they're rolling out a software fix to remedy the design flaw thieves are exploiting.

Between harder-to-steal cars and the "Kia boys" first anniversary this summer, year-over-year crime increases could slow in a few months. Just in time for the next mayor, whoever it is, to claim that their crime-fighting strategies are responsible for the improvement.

Community group trying to establish dope-free zone downtown

March 2 meeting for new Streeterville weed dispensary triggers petition effort

G.P. Green House LLC has filed a Special Use application to operate a recreational marijuana dispensary at 620 N. Fairbanks Ct. in Streeterville.

But they may soon experience some pushback from the community, as a petition campaign is getting underway to establish a Cannabis Restriction Zone [CRZ] downtown.

A community meeting to review the proposal will be held on the 2nd floor of Chez, 247 E. Ontario St., at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 2, where neighbors can learn more about the proposal.

Those who prefer to sit in on the meeting by using Zoom may use meeting ID 849 6748 7194 and passcode i6PdDs.

The Streeterville Organization for Active Residents [SOAR] and some other nearby residents have raised concerns about this proposal. Concerns are similar to what was voiced in 2022, when ZBA denied a nearby proposal at 212 E. Ontario St.

Given the plethora of dope dealers who now wish to establish a dispensary in the downtown area, SOAR has begun circulating a petition to establish a CRZ downtown.

Recreational weed may be legal in Chicago, but cannabis selling, buying and consumption remains classified as a Schedule I substance (among other drugs like heroin and cocaine) by the federal government.

The only places where recreational weed can legally be consumed in Chicago is on private property, but there is presently little enforcement of that law, and consumption is taking place in many public spaces. Dope smokers are largely flouting these rules and lighting up in public, as enforcement is often lax in Chicago.

Smart potheads know that the price of legal recreational weed is much higher at licensed dispensaries than what one would pay for a comparable gram on the street from a traditional dealer. And it's not just the price of the weed itself that's higher—legal weed comes with taxes levied by Illinois, Cook County and Chicago that mean Illinois dope is some of the most expensive in the nation.

The Illinois Compiled Statute

allows a legal voter to propose to restrict one or more types of cannabis business establishments in a community. The rule includes cultivation centers, craft growers, processing organizations, dispensing organizations, and transporting organizations, or both home cultivation and one or more cannabis business establishments from operating in that precinct.

To be eligible, the individual seeking a Petition from the City Clerk must be a legally registered voter in the precinct the individual seeks to restrict.

Upon the Petition's completion, the City Clerk will post the Petition online at www.chicityclerk.com/cannabis for a 30 day comment period. During the comment period the public may submit comments regarding the Petition. Comments may also be submitted in person to the City Hall Office of the City Clerk, or to clerk.cannabis@cityofchicago.org, and will be available for public inspection at City Hall.

During the 30-day comment period, the City Clerk will also review the submitted Petition for legal sufficiency. At the end of the 30-day comment period, the City Clerk will publicly post online its determination of whether the Petition is accepted as legally sufficient or rejected as legally insufficient.

So despite the community meeting being scheduled, ZBA's review of the application will be on hold, pending the neighborhood petition.

An alderman may then review the Petition, and consider relevant factors about the precinct identified in the Petition, such as its locations, character, the prevalence of residentially zoned property, current licensed cannabis business already establishments in the precinct, and the prevailing viewpoint within the precinct.

Legend of Hawaiian music at Old Town School March 2

STORY BY PETER VON BUOL

Legendary Hawaiian slack key guitarist George Kahumoku Jr. and second-generation 'ukulele virtuoso Herb Ohta, Jr., will be returning 8 p.m. Thursday, March 2 to perform at the Old Town School of Folk Music. Joining them on stage will be Sonny Lim, a multi-instrumentalist known for slack key and Hawaiian lap steel and who is himself a member of a famous family in Hawaiian music.

The trio will be performing on the stage of the school's Gary and Laura Maurer Hall at 4544 N. Lincoln Ave. The musicians will be bringing a little bit of their Hawaiian warmth to the Chicago stage as they regularly perform together Wednesday evenings at Maui's Napili Kai Beach Resort.

Tickets range from $26 to $28.

Slack-key guitar, known as kīhō'alu ('loosen the key'), uses guitar-tunings modified from standard guitar tunings. By either raising or lowering the tunings of the individual strings, slack-key guitarists achieve a sound recognizable as distinctly Hawaiian. The style originated during the 1830s among native Hawaiian cowboys ('Paniolo' in Hawaiian). Until recently, many of these tunings were considered family secrets and not shared with those who were not family members.

North Sider guitar players can experience those secrets by attending the show.

The Hawaiians had been trained in cattle-ranching techniques by Spanish-speaking cowboys from Mexico (vaqueros). Many of the vaqueros were also skilled musicians. Not only did they teach the Hawaiians about cattle-ranching, in the evenings, they shared their music while everyone sat around a campfire. Therefore, prior to returning home to Mexico, many of the vaqueros showed their appreciation to their Hawaiian hosts by gifting them their guitars.

According to Kahumoku, the 19th century Mexican vaqueros had played three types of guitars and had usually performed as a trio. These trios consisted of a four-string bass guitar; a six-string rhythm guitar; and a four-string tenor lead guitar.

"Hawaiians combined the sound of these three into one. They slackened or loosened the strings, picking bass, rhythm and lead all at once, and the art of slack key guitar was born," he said. "Families developed their own tunings and incorporated old Hawaiian-language chants into modern songs with melodies." Kahumoku has co-produced four Grammy Award winning albums of Hawaiian music, and he was also recently honored with a Lifetime Achievement Award by Hawaii's Academy of Recording Arts.

Known for sharing his encyclopedic knowledge of traditional slack key songs from the 19th and 20th century with his audiences, Kahumoku also enjoys playing his own compositions and is always thinking about new songs. Many of these are inspired by his work as a proud traditional farmer.

"I enjoy creating new songs based on Hawaiian Traditions of the past. These songs are reflective of everyday life and what's happening in the [present]," Kahumoku said.

Ohta will be returning with Kahumoku to showcase his skills once again as one of Hawaii's premier 'ukulele virtuosos, carrying on the legacy of his father. In the 1950s, Ohta's father, Ohta-San, astounded television viewers on the mainland with his ukulele virtuosity when he appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show.

Inspired by his father, the younger Ohta is known for his unsurpassed speed and meticulous technique. Ohta is also a student of Hawaiian musical history and uses the 'ukulele to musically transport concertgoers to the days when most visitors arrived in Hawaii by passenger steamships.

Joining Kahumoku and Ohta will be Elmer "Sonny" Lim, Jr., once the steel guitarist for the Makaha Sons of Ni'ihau band which featured the haunting vocals and ukulele of the late Hawaiian musical legend, Israel Kamakawiwo'ole.

Growing up in a family known for its abilities in music and dance, Sonny Lim was surrounded by music. Support from his family allowed him to develop his own style. At the age of 12, he started to perform professionally with his family at Laurence Rockefeller's luxurious Mauna Kea Beach Resort. Three years later, the Makaha Sons of Ni'ihau, who were already one of the most in-demand live bands in the islands, asked him to perform lap steel for them.

In high school, he would leave his home island to fly to Honolulu to perform with the band. Lim only appears on several of the band's albums but in 2012, he was among those included when the group was inducted into the Hawaiian Music Hall of Fame. Lim has also achieved mainland recognition. In 2005, he was a featured recording artist on Slack Key Guitar, Vol. 2, winner of the inaugural Grammy Award for Hawaiian Music.

For more than a quarter of a century, Kahumoku, 72, has annually been bringing the Masters of Hawaiian Music tour to the mainland. The tours provide Kahumoku with an opportunity to personally connect with his fans on the mainland, many of whom have even traveled to Maui to see his weekly live show.

Kahumoku has also spent decades in education, both as an administrator and as a classroom instructor. While he is proud of his work in the classroom, he also appreciates the education he received from his parents, grandparents and ancestors.

"My father, George Kahumoku, Sr. quit school after eighth-grade and broke horses for McCandless Ranch" on the Big Island of Hawaii. "My great-grandfather, Willy Kahumoku, was instrumental in building the stone walls that contained the cattle [on the Big Island]. My [ancestors] all played kī hō'alu guitar. I've been playing and performing slack key guitar as well as farming, and ranching all of my life," Kahumoku said.

Throughout much of the 20th century, slack-key guitar was overshadowed in popular music by the more commercial-sounding Hawaiian steel-guitar. By the late 1960s, interest in traditional Hawaiian folk music rebounded and slack key guitar achieved recognition as a lead instrument. Leading the way was The Sons of Hawaii, which featured the collaborative musical interplay between the late Gabby Pahinui on slack key guitar and the late Eddie Kamae on 'ukulele.

Supreme Court's Dobbs decision should end 'bodily autonomy' claims vs COVID vax mandates

BY JONATHAN BILYK
Cook County Record

Even as Mayor Lori Lightfoot and others in Chicago's elected Democratic leadership excoriated the U.S. Supreme Court for its decision last summer overturning Roe v. Wade, lawyers for the city have seized on that decision to back their assertions the so-called "right to bodily autonomy" courts cited for decades to uphold abortion rights should not also extend to those seeking to defeat COVID vaccine mandates.

On Feb. 8, lawyers representing the city of Chicago filed a brief in Chicago federal court, urging a federal judge to put an end to the lawsuit brought by city workers who claimed the city wrongly forced them to choose between taking a COVID jab or keeping their jobs.

The Chicago city workers have been in court against Lightfoot and City Hall since 2021, when the city first imposed its COVID vaccine mandate, threatening to fire those who did not comply. The lawsuit also named Illinois Gov. JB Pritzker as a defendant, for his role in imposing the mandates on public workers in Illinois, in general.

The Chicago city worker lawsuit came among a flurry of similar litigation brought by firefighters and other public workers against the city, the state and other state and local governmental bodies and officials.

The plaintiffs all pressed similar claims, asserting the vaccine mandates violated government workers' constitutional rights to due process, bodily autonomy and freedom of religion, among other constitutional violations.

They also alleged the mandates violated their conscience rights under state law.

The city further argued the workers' claims concerning violations of their rights to privacy and bodily autonomy under the 14th Amendment also could not hold up.

In all of the cases thus far, judges refused to impose injunctions blocking the various government officials and agencies from enforcing the COVID vaccine mandates.

Plaintiffs appealed those decisions, but found no relief from the U.S. Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. In the summer of 2022, appellate judges agreed that the scientific case for the vaccine mandates was growing gradually weaker as real world observations and research indicated the COVID vaccines approved by the Food and Drug Administration did not actually prevent infection or transmission of the coronavirus that causes COVID-19.

However, the appellate judges said even that was not enough to compel the courts to strike down the mandates at this point, because the mandates did not violate any fundamental rights, in part, because the mandates were imposed as a condition of employment.

The appeals court sent the matter back to Class actions target Advocate Illinois Masonic, Loyola hospitals for requiring health workers to scan fingerprints

BY MARY HAYDOCK
Cook County Record

Two major Chicago area hospital groups, Advocate Aurora Health and hospitals operated by Loyola Medicine, have been targeted by class actions accusing them of improperly requiring workers to scan their fingerprints to access drug dispensing systems at their hospitals.

In nearly identical claims, attorneys from the firm of Stephan Zouras, of Chicago, filed two class actions lawsuits on Feb. 7 in Cook County Circuit Court.

Named plaintiff Nicole Campobasso, on behalf of herself and others, filed a class action lawsuit against Gottlieb Memorial Hospital, Gottlieb Community Health Services Corporation, which does business as Macneal Hospital, Loyola University Medical Center, and Trinity Health Corporation over alleged violations of the Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act [BIPA].

Additionally, in a separate lawsuit, named plaintiff Andres Socorro, on behalf of himself and others, also filed a class action lawsuit against Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center and Advocate Aurora Health for similar alleged BIPA violations.

As with thousands of similar complaints filed under the BIPA law, these lawsuits accuse the defendant employers of improverly requiring workers to scan their fingerprints to verify their identity. In both lawsuits, alleged BIPA violations center on the supposed improper collection of biometric information to obtain access to regulated substances; specifically, the dispensing of pharmaceuticals at Pyxis Medstations.

The named defendants in both cases have used and continue to use the Pyxis biometric enabled medicine dispensing systems. These automated dispensing systems provide clinicians with an efficient means of disbursing medications in a safe, secure environment, and are designed to combat drug thefts.

The system authenticates the user by capturing and utilizing biometric identifiers. The Pyxis system also allows integration with other devices, software, servers and such. As with any similar system, users must first be enrolled into the system in order to obtain access. Biometric data is

'Puffy Coat Bandit' ringleaders in custody

BY CWBCHICAGO

Felony charges have been filed against two men in connection with a wave of "Puffy Coat Bandit" thefts from restaurant patrons across the city, a Chicago alderman said Feb. 17.

Jerome Sharp, 29, and James Wilkins, 27, were indicted by a Cook County grand jury after a painstaking investigation that involved Chicago police and federal authorities, according to Ald. Brian Hopkins [2nd] and a law enforcement source.

Hopkins tweeted that charges were filed against two suspected "ringleaders" of the theft crew, one day after Block Club Chicago reported that restaurant owners believed "cops aren't doing much about" the crimes.

In fact, a wide-reaching investigation had been underway for weeks. The US Marshals Service even got involved after the thieves stole a wallet and credentials belonging to a public official, believed to be a federal judge, a source said.

Sharp, an 11-time convicted felon, has been in jail on theft and domestic battery charges since Dec. 16, 2022, public records show. The theft charge filed against Sharp in December involves a May 15, 2022, incident at a restaurant in the 2200 block of N. Clybourn.

In that case, a man was having breakfast when Sharp and another man approached and asked him to make donations while Sharp placed a brown bag on the victim's table, prosecutors said. The victim asked them to leave him alone.

Sharp allegedly picked up the bag and the victim's wallet, then walked away. Four of the victim's credit cards were quickly used at a Target store. That's the same technique used by the so-called "Puffy Coat" team.

Wilkins has been in jail on a warrant since Feb. 10. Chicago police records show he has also been arrested for theft-related allegations at least three times, but the outcomes of those cases were not immediately available.

Some of the "Puffy Coat" thefts occurred as recently as last weekend while Sharp and Wilkins were in custody. So, more arrests are possible, according to the law enforcement source.

For weeks, men dressed in puffy jackets have been distracting diners and stealing their phones, wallets, and purses in restaurants and bars across the city, particularly in Lincoln Park and the Near North Side.

The victims' credit cards were maxed out within minutes of the thefts, almost always at Target stores in the South Loop and the Near North Side, according to Chicago police reports and recent statements by prosecutors in related cases.

Hopkins praised CPD's 18th District foot patrol officers, detectives, and a fugitive apprehension team that arrested Sharp and Wilkins, whom he called the "ringleaders" of the theft operation.

Sheriff's office launches partnership with PAWS

Homeless pet charity needs more volunteers

PAWS Chicago, the Midwest's largest comprehensive No Kill animal welfare organization, and Cook County Sheriff Tom Dart have announced a volunteer program that supports the need for more PAWS animal-handling volunteers while serving as a wellness initiative for Sheriff's Office staff.

PAWS was founded, and is still headquartered, on the North Side's Clybourn corridor.

Through the program, Sheriff's Office employees will walk dogs and participate in cat enrichment activities at the PAWS Chicago Medical Center, the largest homeless pet hospital in the U.S. The program will help PAWS Chicago meet a rising need for volunteers, because while adoptions and other animal welfare programs have now returned to pre-pandemic levels, volunteer hours have not.

"We care for hundreds of pets each day, ranging from the homeless pets that receive medical care on their path to adoption to the many more that receive free and low-cost services we offer to the public," said PAWS Chicago CEO Susanna Wickham. "A robust volunteer program is an essential part of us meeting the community's needs, and we are still working to regain the volunteer hours we lost during the pandemic."

With over 2,000 Sheriff's Office employees located just a mile away from the nation's premier homeless pet hospital, the new program will support a growing need at PAWS Chicago: more volunteers to help with socialization of healing pets. It will also help animal-loving staff at the Sheriff's Office reduce stress and decompress while giving back to the community.

"We reached out to PAWS after hearing about their recent disaster relief rescue effort, because we wanted to help those pets on their path to finding homes," said Sheriff Dart. "We realized there was an opportunity to provide a much larger program and benefit to our staff and PAWS Chicago."

The Sheriff's Office's first-

of-its-kind customized volunteer partnership with PAWS Chicago trims the volunteer training time and focuses efforts on dog walking and cat enrichment, which are in great need at the Medical Center due to the high volume of pets served.

Several employees of the Sheriff's Office have already undergone training and begun the volunteer program, with many more expressing interest in attending orientation in the coming weeks.

The PAWS Chicago Medical Center examines every animal brought to the organization and provides all necessary treatments. The facility performed over 15,000 spay and neuter operations last year and PAWS Chicago recently passed a milestone of 300,000 such procedures in its 25-year history. The 30,000-square-foot hospital can house more than 200 pets, which allows PAWS Chicago to rescue pets from high-kill shelters in 13 different states, such as the rescue of 33 puppies and dogs from the Houston area following a tornado that closed one Texas shelter.

DIPLOMACY: Ambassador to Japan, Rahm Emanuel, had some nice things to say from Tokyo about Civic Leader Laurence Msall's death and his impact on Chicago. He also had kind words for the late WXRT DJ Lin Brehmer and his singular Chicago voice. A dear friend. A voice he misses. And while saying you can't live on sushi alone, he praises the Manny's Deli Corned Beef sandwich. The diplomatic corps certainly seems to have softened the former mayor's rough edges. Nice to see.

NO TELLING: Outgoing Ald. Tom Tunney [44th], wise and popular, endorsed Paul Vallas for Mayor in this newspaper, and was a surprise visitor to the Lakeview Kiwanis Club lunch last week at Ann Sather's. He shut the door, spoke off the record, and told people to smile more. Here's hoping there is a spot for him in a future Vallas administration. The guy cooks your lunch, pours your second cup, tells you what's what, then buses the tables.

LOCAL CRIME: Robberies are soaring on the residential streets of East Village and Wicker Park. Hell, all over the North Side. Don't take chances and walk alone. Read the crime reports in this newspaper, then multiply by four.

HISTORICAL PRIDE: Cook County Cmsr. Donna Black Miller beaming with February pride. Her great grandmother Anna Mae Black Robinson is the Founder of The Chicago Women's Golf Club. "We called her Nano," she says. Club founded in 1937 and the Clubhouse in 1989.

ALL WE NEED IS LOVE: Super sleuth Blase Foria reminding us that it was 59 years ago that The Beatles appeared on the Ed Sullivan show. He says "All I know is when I went to school the next day all the Catholic girls at Saint Jerome's were changed forever."

READERS: "Keep writing. You're the column to read." Mary Laney, NBC News (Ret.)

SATC2: Carrie and Aidan are officially back on for "And Just Like That," Season 2.

SAY A LITTLE PRAYER: Michael Lerich recently observed a special salute to Burt Bacharach with stunning performance by singer Jim Sellers. Fellow Maestro Rich Daniels also lamenting the loss of Burt's musical contributions. Bacharach (1928-2023) was one-of-a kind and just right for his era, no one had America singing more.

BAD MOMZ: The Bad Momz of comedy brings their talented roster of hilarious women and mom comics to Lincoln Park's Theater on the Lake on Feb. 24. They've been selling out rooms across Chicagoland. From multiple appearances at Zanies to The Kelly Clarkson Show, these Chicago-based ladies are taking the comedy world by storm. The line-up for Friday features comic/emcee Orly K.G., as well as comics Jeanie Doogan, Jess Martinez, Michelle Krajecki, Essence and Angie McMahon. Doors open at 6 p.m. Theater on the Lake, 2401 N. Lake Shore Dr. Tickets are $30, www.eventbrite.com/e/bad-momz-of-comedy-tickets-519690868377.

ARTS ACADEMY: Golden Globe songwriter Justin Tranter's music is said to be "Golden." There's no doubt now, as he contributes $500,000 to his Alma Mater, the Chicago Academy for the Arts, to assist in scholarships for students in need. A favorite of Britney Spears and Gwen Stefani, his gift will change lives.

UPTOWN: Good news. After years of neglect, 4745 N. Beacon has been purchased and is ready to begin rehab.

RESIDENTIAL MARKET: Congrats to Janet Owen, who was recently covered in both Chicago Agent magazine and Crain's for her outstanding 2022 record breaking sale on Orchard Street.

SMOKEOUT: Darius Rucker and the Zac Brown Band among Windy City Smokeout headliners July 13-16 at the United Center.

WHO'S WHERE: Hall of Fame Brian Urlacher says he doesn't want a domed Bears Stadium in Arlington Heights... Peter, longtime waiter at Greek Islands, known by his village nickname "Panaga," is back on Halsted St. delighting his Chicago fans... Blair Kamin with his new book at the Bookstall in Winnetka... So happy to see Sam and Honey Jacobs Skinner and their sons, Sam and Will, look-

Seed exchange Feb. 26 at Broadway Armory

Several organizations are co-hosting a seed swap, exchange and give-away 1 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 26, at the Broadway Armory, 5917 N. Broadway.

Organizers request that guests bring any native, rain garden, fruit, vegetable or herb seeds to share and trade.

Envelopes will be provided to help with the exchange.

Whether you saved seeds, have leftover new or used seed packets, or are looking for seeds, the Seed Swap is the place to be, you never know what you'll find.

This event is free, and open to the public. No need to be a gardener to participate. Plus, Water Reclamation Commissioner Mariyana Spyropoulos will be giving away free Milkweed seeds, as a part of their Save the Monarchs program.

The Illinois Monarch Project encourages the public to address conservation and engage public and private landowners to protect the butterflies from becoming extinct.

New studies suggest that monarch butterfly populations have rapidly declined due to habitat loss, resulting from development, poor land management practices, logging and heavy reliance on pesticides and herbicides in the United States and Canada. Milkweed is the sole source of food for monarch caterpillars. So milkweed is essential to their life cycle. Taking action now will preserve future and current monarch generations.

For event information and RSVP visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/seed-swap-giveaway-tickets-530588403197>.

New exhibit at Children's Museum brings connection to the water

On Thursday, the Chicago Children's Museum [CCM] cuts the ribbon on its newest exhibit, Water City, a cityscape that evokes Chicago. From its rivers and channels that meander between skyscrapers, to Lake Michigan that stretches beyond Navy Pier, complete with a lighthouse and the Ferris Wheel in view, the entire cityscape celebrates the wonder of Chicago and its waters for children to explore.

The Water City exhibit will open to the general public on Thursday, Feb. 23. Admission is free that day during the Free Family Day. For more information, visit <https://www.chicagochildrensmuseum.org/family-days>.

Visitors to the museum at 700 E. Grand Ave., are invited to use various tools to funnel, pump, push and pull water up, down, around and through the city.

Small boats populate the waterways and move with the flow created by the visitor's actions.

Child-directed cars coast over the bridges and along the shoreline. Additionally, visitors can transport water up into the tower overhead to create sporadic rain showers on the city below.

Some of the buildings in the Chicago cityscape are smooth, some are perforated, and some have movable parts which spin or make noise with the impact of water. The water flows down the buildings and back into the branches of the river below.

The Water City exhibit will replace the well-loved Water Ways exhibit, which debuted when CCM opened at Navy Pier more than 25 years ago.

"The use of the Chicago skyline and city setting creates a sense of place, highlighting the ways that water plays a role in the Chicago landscape—through its rivers, channels, and Lake Michigan. Children are invited to find familiar features of the city and explore how water interfaces with the buildings, structures, and vessels, and to create their own stories within the setting," said Jennifer Farrington, CEO of CCM.

The main components of Water City include the "City Center" where visitors control water through a variety of methods in this area, interacting with skyscrapers evocative of Chicago's iconic skyline that reach high up into the space's historic tower. Visitors aim sprayers at movable parts on the buildings to experiment with cause-and-effect. They turn a crank to move a water conveyor belt that fills a large container to its tipping point, creating a big splash. Water can be made to fall on the skyline as "rain" from showerheads embedded in "clouds" overhead, with visitors controlling the timing and intensity of the rainfall.

At "Musical Water" the water table features water-activated musical buildings and invites visitors to explore the variety of sounds that water can make when it interacts with different surfaces, vessels, and objects. Visitors use water to activate cymbals and chimes housed in buildings. Water falling on a variety of surfaces produces a symphony of surprising and familiar sounds.

The Foggy Lake area offers visitors the largest volume of standing water in the exhibit (a basin), representing Water City's "lake." The lake provides ample opportunities to experiment with both loose parts and the qualities of water, including making waves. Over the lake hangs a layer of fog—allowing visitors to explore water in vapor form, and the mysterious look and feel of the fog.

The River and Dam exhibit offers a chance for children to build a dam using loose parts and to control the flow of water. They can create a course for vessels to travel, and watch what happens as the opening or closing of the dam speeds up or slows down the flow of water and its impact on the traveling boats.

Water City includes a variety of props to support various types of play throughout all sections. There is also an Early Learning Area to accommodate younger visitors.

Chore service for seniors to help with household tasks

A Chore Services Program that supports adults 60 years and older is now being offered by the city.

The program is intended for those recently released from the hospital, experiencing illness, or experiencing difficulty with completing household tasks due to physical or cognitive limitations.

Short term in-home support (assistance with cleaning, laundry, and self-care) and heavy-duty cleaning inclusive of the removal of excessive clutter is offered.

This year the program is expanding services to also include extermination, lawn care, and snow removal services to older adults that are homeowners and that meet existing Chore program eligibility requirements. Rental apartment units are not included under the newly expanded services given that rental property maintenance is the responsibility of landlord property owners.

To schedule an eligibility assessment, older adults or their caregivers may contact the Senior Services Division Information and Assistance call center at 312-744-4016 or email aging@cityofchicago.org.

THE HISTORY OF LINCOLN PARK ZOO WITH ADRIENNE HERRIGAN, MLIS, CRA THURSDAY, MARCH 2 AT 7 P.M.

at Lerner Auditorium, Conrad Sulzer Regional Library, 4455 N. Lincoln Ave.

Adrienne Herrigan, MLIS, CRA

Lincoln Park Zoo has attracted countless Chicago locals and visitors since its founding over 150 years ago.

A unique realization of the city's motto, "Urbs in Horto," or "City in a Garden," the zoo has provided generations with the opportunity to connect with nature in the heart of our urbanizing landscape.

Please join Adrienne Herrigan, Lincoln Park Zoo's Senior Manager of Animal Data, Permits & Zoo Archives, as she discusses the history of the nation's oldest free zoo and how it has evolved from a gift of four swans from New York's Central Park into the remarkable cultural, conservation, and educational organization it is today.

LEGAL NOTICE
COOK COUNTY
REAL PROPERTY
ASSESSMENTS FOR 2022

This publication constitutes official notice of the changes in assessment to all owners of real property in North Chicago Township. The 2022 as-essment changes as published herein are those determined by the Assessor of Cook County.

It is the duty of the Assessor to appraise all taxable real property in Cook County at its fair cash value as of January 1, 2022. Fair cash value is described as what the property would bring at a voluntary sale in the normal course of business or trade. The Assessor is required by law to assess said property in a fair and just manner.

The Assessor does not determine property taxes. Property taxes are determined by the spending needs and requests of municipalities, school boards, park districts and other local government agencies which provide public services to property owners. The Assessor's sole responsibility is to estimate the value of real estate property.

In Cook County, real property is classified according to its use. The classification system is used to determine the percentage of the fair cash value at which the real property is assessed for purposes of taxation.
Accordingly, real property is assessed at only a fraction of its fair cash value, depending on its use and classification.

Changes in assessment for land and improvements are listed separately.
The dimensions of the land are also listed:

A - Acres

B - Back Lot

N - Irregular Lot

S - Square Feet

Cook County uses a Permanent Index Number (P.I.N) system as a means to identify individual real estate parcels. The PIN consists of a 14-digit number. The first two digits identify the area or survey township; the second two digits identify the sub-area or section; the next three digits identify blocks.

Note:

Blocks are defined as follows:

Blocks 100 to 199 are located in the N.W. Quarter

Blocks 200 to 299 are located in the N.E. Quarter

Blocks 300 to 399 are located in the S.W. Quarter

Blocks 400 to 499 are located in the S.E. Quarter

The next three digits in the series identify the specific parcel or lot. The last four, (where applicable), identify individual condominium units, non-operating railroad parcels or leasehold's of exempt parcels.

Whenever possible, the assessment list will be listed by the street name and the street or house number of the parcel. However, the Cook County Assessor's Office official records rely on permanent Property Index Numbers (P.I.N.) only. No assessment of real property shall be considered invalid due to an incorrect listing.

If you have any questions regarding the assessment of real property you should visit the Office of the Assessor of Cook County, 118 N. Clark Street, Room 301, Chicago, Illinois 60602, or call (312) 443-7550.

Join in the St. Patrick’s Day Parade

The annual downtown St. Patrick’s Day Parade will step off 12:15 p.m. Saturday, March 11, and North Siders are invited to join in the parade.

Ald. Brendan Reilly [42nd] has invited those so inclined to march along with him and his trolley, it will be located that day in Slot #42, which will be on E. Balbo, west of N. Columbus Dr.

Due to road closures, he is asking fellow marchers to arrive at 11:15 a.m.

The office is also seeking RSVP’s to march in the St. Patrick’s Day Parade with the alderman and his team. Reservations are being taken by calling 312-274-0042.

The history of St. Patrick’s day in Chicago goes back more than 175 years. Now a longstanding tradition, Chicago’s Irish parade was first held in 1843 and became an official city event in the 1950s. The dyeing of the Chicago River was added in 1962, quickly becoming one of Chicago’s most famous events.

on the Hawaiian island of Kaua’i but that property was lost to a foreclosure.

In his Feb. 17 Motion to Clarify, Hildebrand wrote any loan documents his clients will be supplying will be “for inspection only” and he will not allow them to be entered into the court record nor shared with the media.

“If the plaintiffs’ counsels [attorneys Glen J. Dunn and Doug E. Litowitz] both agree in writing that will treat the material as confidential and [for] attorney’s eyes only,” they will not share any information in those documents with their clients; they will not attempt to contact any person or party referenced in the documents. They will not discuss the information with the media or any other third parties; any discussions related to the documents shall be subject to settlement privilege, and may not be used in any litigation, citation or proceeding,” wrote Hildebrand.

After having been ordered to do so in Sept., Laytin and Ding had appeared to have begun the court-ordered process of paying back their investors. However, by Nov. 11, 2022, Laytin and Ding failed to make a court-ordered payment of $100,000 to their investors. That payment was supposed to have been the first of three consecutive monthly payments of $100,000 each.

On Nov. 10, the pair had sent just $20,000... and sent it to an incorrect bank account. That was yet another stall tactic. Because they had paid a portion of the amount due, the defendants were granted an automatic 10-day grace period to pay the remaining $80,000 balance of that scheduled payment. However, they failed to meet the Nov. 20 deadline and the plaintiffs then resumed their citation to discover the defendants’ assets.

Laytin and Ding owe the remaining sum of $27 million, as well as any additional charges which may now total hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The Chinese-based investors originally lent the pair their money through the federal EB-5 visa program. Foreigners participate in this program by making a significant financial investment in U.S.-based projects and are fast-tracked towards permanent resident status, commonly referred to as obtaining Green Card status. Each lent $550,000 to fund construction of what would have been known as Carillon Tower. A total of 89 Chinese real estate investors lent Laytin and Ding their money for a total of $50 million. For most of those participating in EB-5 projects, their investment is a substantial portion of their life’s savings.

On Sept. 19, 2022, Kocoras had ordered Laytin and Ding to begin the process of returning $27.5 million to these real estate investors through a series of scheduled payments.

While the failed tower would have been built by Laytin’s New York-based Symmetry Property Development Co., the Chinese investors had lent their money to Laytin and Ding as individuals. Upon receipt of their investors’ money, both had signed documents stating they would be held personally responsible, not the corporation.

In the court documents signed by Laytin and Ding in September, 2022, the pair state they agreed to the order in “good faith, as a voluntary business accommodation to the Plaintiff Class, and not for the purposes of delay, to waste assets or to run out the clock on the various bankruptcy claw-back provisions [the recovery of money already disbursed].”

If built, the tower would have replaced a series of historic 19th century rowhouses at 43-46 East Superior St. which in 2020 were included in the city’s Near North Side Multiple Property Landmark District.

was considered as a viable candidate for The Neighborhood Banks District.

However, the owner at the time, Diamond Bank, opposed being Landmarked and instead of viewing this potential designation as an honor, chose to challenge and push back to such an extreme, it was dropped as a candidate for this designation, which included five other neighborhood banks. This would be a wonderful time to reconsider the Neighborhood Bank concept.

Despite some preliminary assurances that the bank is not part of the redevelopment plans at this time, preservationists are concerned for the long-term preservation of the bank building.

coln Park and with direct access to DuSable Lake Shore Dr. and Lake Michigan.

Archway Standard was the design of architect George Terp (1910-1998) and was completed and opened in 1971. Terp attended the Armour Institute of Technology (Illinois Institute of Technology), and was said to have designed nearly 14,000 gas stations over his 25-year career as an architect for the Amoco Oil Co. Retiring from Amoco two years after the construction of the station in 1973, Terp continued a small architectural practice in the South Suburb of Flossmoor. This project was likely completed at the zenith of his career.

This Midcentury Modern structure is clearly in harm’s way according to Fern Hill’s designs. Noted for its long extending canopy which extends from the ground with concrete feet, the structure rises upward to form a large protective cover to shield patrons from the wind, rain, sun and snow at a very windy corner location. Over time, the once patriotic colors of Standard Oil’s red, white and blue have changed to the green and yellow colors of BP. However, much of the station remains as it was originally designed by Terp.

Preservation Chicago’s predictions may soon come true for this property unless it is quickly designated Chicago’s first Landmark service station. While the service station may no longer operate as a gas and service station in Fern Hill’s plans, one outcome is that the elongated extending canopy could be reutilized and incorporated into a new commercial development, engaging much of the structure if so desired by the developers.

nomie recovery of the Loop.

While the agency continues to address concerns of safety, cleanliness, and punctuality of its services, passengers report crowded and packed trains during rush hour.

Although slower to recover, Metra has also seen increased consistency of its ridership with recovery rates hovering around 37% of 2019 ridership.

The holiday season attracted shoppers to the Loop as holiday themed pop-ups, like Christkindlmarket and the State Street

Holiday Market. These pop-ups showcased small business owners from a wide array of backgrounds.

“We look forward to showcasing the sectors and industries that influence the Loop’s economy and success,” said Edwards. “From theatre to retail, and real estate development to education, the Loop is a dynamic mix of people, organizations and attitudes that support the progression of downtown’s future. We’ve shifted the format of our research to reflect and better serve that change as we intentionally report the current state of the Loop and project the district’s future.”
